

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 13

2nd Annual Frosty Festival at the Firehouse Center

Children arrive at the Firehouse in their pajamas for an hour of activities before watching the classic "Frosty the Snowman" on the big screen. 1 pm at the Firehouse Center. Tickets: $10, include a free movie snack and snowman gift bag. 978-462-7336 or firehouse.org

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19

Holiday Sing Along at the Firehouse

Join in song and listen to Terry Blanchard read the classic holiday story, "Twas' the Night Before Christmas." Bring your camera for a photo with Santa Claus. Treats for kids. 11 am at the Firehouse Center. 978-462-7336 or firehouse.org

SATURDAY & SUNDAY, DECEMBER 19 & 20

Theater in the Open's Holiday Show

Theater in the Open brings magic storytelling, puppetry, pageantry, music, movement, and acting to its seasonal events. Its widely anticipated holiday program will be performed at The Firehouse Center. 978-462-7336 or firehouse.org

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24TH

Christmas Eve Candlelight Service at Hope Community Church

The traditional Candlelight Christmas Eve Service includes carols, candles and hot mulled cider. 6 pm. 978-463-HOPE or hope-community-church.com

Christmas Eve Candlelight Service at the Old South Church

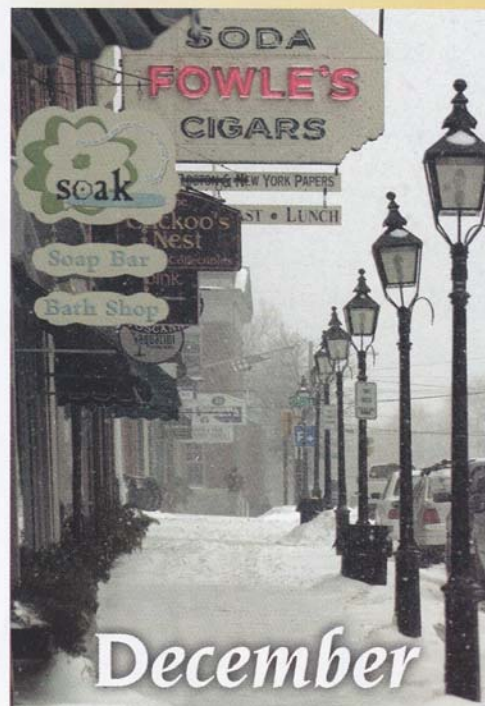

All are welcome to join us for our service of lessons and carols at 7 pm. Admission free. Handicap accessible. 978-465-9666 or oldsouthnbpt.org

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 31

New Years Eve

Celebrate a "Once in a Blue Moon Opportunity." Throughout the generations, the Waterside people of Newburyport have measured time and progress with the New and Full Moons that rise at the mouth of the Merrimack River remarking milestones and marking benchmarks with each blue moon. An ideal opportunity to reorient and reflect, both individually and as a community. Come to know more about this event at Comity.org

NEWBURYPORT 2009-2010

© 2009 ILLUMEA PHOTOGRAPHY

Every child receives a free

Santa's Works

Saturdays & Sundays
Inn Street, Downtown Newburyport

www.NewburyportChamber.org

"A Blue Moon"
© Kenneth Dear